COMPANY EXPERIENCE

Chad joined the Colliers Kelowna office in November 2006 as a property and strata manager; however, has moved over to brokerage and leasing side as of spring 2007.

PRIOR EXPERIENCE

After a successful professional hockey career that included the Olympic Games in Nagano, (1993 – 2001), Chad graduated from Okanagan University College in Kelowna with a Bachelor in Business Administration. Chad's passion in investment analysis lead to representing OUC at the first Annual CRA forecast dinner.

Upon graduation, Chad was involved in marketing and sales and returned to strata management at Big White Ski Resort. While there, Chad gained considerable insight in dealing with commercial / residential properties that are strata's while at the same time, have resort qualities.

With the understanding of rental and commercial properties, Chad's clients will recognize the positive and negative attributes of the property thereby achieving the maximum possible value for the owners of the property. Chad believes that each customer and client is a unique individual who should be appreciated.
