COMPANY EXPERIENCE

Jack joined Colliers Kelowna in May 2007 as a member of the leasing, investment and development team. He obtained a diploma in Business Administration with a major in Management from the Southern Alberta Institute of Technology (SAIT). After several management positions with national franchises in Calgary, he pursued a career in real estate. For the past 3 years, Jack has been focusing on commercial leasing and sales in the Calgary area and will continue doing so in the Kelowna market.

Jack has a wide spectrum of experience in relocation, expansion, leasing, subleasing, sales and investments. Jack brings his extensive knowledge of inventory, market conditions, lease comparables, trends and financial analysis to each client relationship.

Jack's solid background, combined with his experience and his dedication to the business have made him a great asset to his clients.
